

September 2009 Family Services Report

The Family Services Committee discussed about their family partners. Some of the families are reluctant about calling their support person regardless if they have a problem or not. One family member stated she would call the support person if she needed her. We need to find a way to keep the communication lines open. We also discussed the Sweat Equity hours and how they earn them.

Nancy Wessel

Chairman Family Services Committee